

Unit 5 Literature Test – LAC – Due 11/19

Literary Analysis and Composition: Literature Unit 5: To Everything There Is a Season

Lesson List Materials Advance Prep Objectives

1: Spring and Fall

2: (Optional) Your Choice

3: "In Just-" and "July"

4: To Autumn

5: "It sifts from Leaden Sieves" and "The Snow-Storm"

6: Unit Assessment

This test covers the poems from Unit 5 Literature. You should be sure to complete each OLS lesson before taking the quiz.

You should use your Classics for Young Readers book while taking the quiz.

The test consists of 10 multiple choice questions and one three paragraph essay question. You may begin working on the essay question ahead of time if you wish. Here is the prompt:

Compare and contrast Gerard Manley Hopkins's "Spring and Fall" and Ralph Waldo Emerson's "The Snow-Storm." In your response, make sure you include the answers to the following questions:

How does each poem depict its respective season?

What type of imagery and language does each poet use?

How do the literary devices of motif and alliteration affect each poem?

How do the images and language relate to the mood of the poems?

Make sure your answer includes at least three well-developed paragraphs.